

Standing Seam

Architectural classic

Panel section. Proportions follow the panel; the drawing is not full size.

16"

Coverage

1.5"

Rib height

3:12

Minimum roof slope

Concealed

Fasteners

About Standing Seam

Standing Seam is the architectural classic: a concealed-fastener profile originally designed for roofing that has become equally popular on residential and commercial walls. Clean lines, no exposed fasteners, and a refined finished look.

- / Architectural classic with concealed fasteners
- / Clean lines for roofs and feature walls
- / Designed for long service life

Specifications

Coverage width	16"
Rib height	1.5"
Lengths	Cut to length, 3' to 60', to the 1/8"
Substrates	Painted steel
Minimum slope	3:12
Fasteners	Concealed fastener system

Where it goes

-  Roofing
-  Walls and siding
-  Matching trim

Before you order

Confirm the profile, gauge, color, lengths and fasteners with our team. Ask us about trim for Standing Seam, or see every trim profile at ridgelinemetal.com/trim.

Monday – Friday: 7:00 AM – 5:00 PM. Saturday: By appointment. Sunday: Closed.